

BUTLER'S TRIUMPH AT KAMEHAMEHA

The organ concert given by Mr. Alfred Apppling Butler at Kamehameha Chapel last evening was an artistic triumph. Kamehameha Chapel representing for Honolulu the local possibilities in the way of concert halls makes up in its architectural beauty and faultless tone of decoration in a measure for the limited seating capacity.

Mr. Alfred Apppling Butler proved himself worthy of the reputation which he has earned on the mainland of being one of the great young organists of America. The playing last evening was magnificent, handicapped though he was by the limitations of the Kamehameha organ. The program was an ensemble of musically and consummate cultivation and taste. Not one false note in arrangement, interpretation or execution was struck from the delightful Toccatto of D'Evry with which the program was introduced to the finale from the Sonata in A Minor by Whiting. Of Mr. Butler's freedom of tone, perfection of coloring, spontaneous and sparkling freshness of interpretation and masterly and inspired conception there can be but one opinion: that such a combination of qualities in such perfection are the peculiar endowment of genius. Of the various numbers the Bach Fugue, the March Funerbre et Chant, Seraphique by Gullmunt, the Andante by Widor, the delightful and exquisite Cantilene by Wolstenholme were among the distinguished triumphs of a faultless program.
